

STUDENT AFFAIRS
CULTURAL AND
COMMUNITY CENTERS
VIRGINIA TECH.

El Centro

🎉 Congratulations Desiree Velez for being the first Latinx homecoming queen! Thank you for everyone who supported her campaign and helped make history at Virginia Tech! 🎉

El Centro, BCC, AHCC, ACE, and LGBTQ+ Cultural and Community Centers present:

COFFEE AND DOUGHNUTS WITH COOK COUNSELING CENTER

Come out and meet some Cook Counseling staff, learn more about our services and who we are. This is a come and go event in each Cultural and Community Center.

October 23rd from 12:00-2:00 pm

November 14th from 10:00 am -12:00 pm

For more information, contact Erica Coates (coates17@vt.edu)

Coffee and Doughnuts with Cook Counseling Center

Who: Cook Counseling Center

What: Come out and meet some Cook Counseling staff, learn more about our services and who we are. This is a come and go event in each Cultural and Community Center.

Where: All Cultural and Community Centers including El Centro, Squires 309

When: October 23rd from 12:00-2:00 pm
November 14th from 10:00 am -12:00 pm

Want to combine Math and Spanish?
Attend

Matecharlas

If you:

- Want to discuss informally 1000-level Math courses in Spanish.
- Want to help someone with math questions in Spanish.
- Plan to study abroad at a Spanish speaking country and want to discuss math in Spanish.

Fall 2019: Tuesday 1-2pm at
el Centro
309 Squires Student Center

Organizer: Dr. Fanny Jasso

Matecharlas

Who: Dr. Fanny Jasso

What: Matecharlas! This is a great opportunity to get assistance in any 1000-level math course. You can practice your Spanish by asking questions in that language. You can also speak about the opportunities to study abroad in Spanish-speaking countries.

Where: El Centro, 309

When: Every Tuesday from 1:00 - 2:00 pm

Hispanic-Latinx Symposium

As Virginia Tech works to increase the Latinx student population, the 2019 Latinx Symposium will serve students, faculty, and administrators who want to know more about the Latinx and Hispanic academic experience. The Symposium has the purpose of increasing visibility, providing a forum for conversation and scholarship, and sharing experiences and strategies that benefit Latinx and Hispanic faculty and students.

When: October 25th, 2019

Where: Old Dominion Ballroom in Squires Student Center

Who: Carmen Gimenez Smith (Department of English) and Carlos Evia (Department of Communication), co-chairs; Veronica Montes, symposium coordinator

link: <http://bit.ly/vtlatinxsymposium>

EL CENTRO, BRAZIL CLUB, LAIGSA, AND L
PRESENT:

TRANSFORM"ARTE ANA CARINHANHA

Ana Carinhanha uses her music as a tool to promote reflection and discussion regarding inclusion and will introduce us to some original songs of her new album Oriki.

October 29th, 2019
7:00-8:30pm
Colonial Hall

Sponsored by the Office of the Provost | Women and Minorities
Artists and Scholars Lecture Series Fund

For more information contact Veronica Montes
(vmontes@vt.edu)

If you need any accommodation, please email (vmontes@vt.edu) at least 48 hours in advance

"TransformArte"

Who: Ana Carinhanha

What: The Brazilian artist, Ana Carinhanha uses her music as a tool to promote reflection and discussion regarding the inclusion of minorities and will introduce us to some original songs of her new album Oriki.

When: October 29th, 2019 from 7:00-8:30pm

Where: Colonial Hall

Comida y Comunidad

Who: El Centro and L.A.S.O.

What: Join us for meaningful conversations with the amazing community in El Centro! We will have guest speakers and delicious food! This happens during the first Tuesday and last Wednesday of the month.

Where: El Centro, Squires 309

When: October 30th, 2019
November 5th, 2019
December 3rd, 2019

Dia de Muertos

Who: Dr. Edward Polanco

What: Dia De Muertos, a tradition that is held in many Latin American countries especially Mexico. Dr. Edward Polanco will have a discussion on what this tradition means and how people celebrate it. There will be Pan de Muerto and hot chocolate.

When: Friday, November 1st, 2019

Where: El Centro, Squires 309

Instagram

Twitter

Have a great rest of your week! We look forward to seeing you soon!

-El Centro and the Latino Association of Student Organizations (L.A.S.O).