EL CENTRO INVITES YOU TO A
VIRTUAL OPEN HOUSE

SEPTEMBER 15TH, 2020
5:30-6:30PM

El Centro is one of the five cultural and community centers at Virginia Tech located in Squires 309. This is an open space for homework, meetings, and events.

El Centro serves as a Latinx/ Hispanic cultural center for those who identify within the community, are interested in the culture, or are allies.

Established July 2016

Hispanic-Latinx Heritage Month!

El Centro has a bunch of exciting events lined up for Hispanic-Latinx Heritage Month! For those of you wondering, Hispanic-Latinx Heritage Month (HHLM) is a month in the United States that is dedicated to celebrating the culture and achievements of Hispanic/Latinx Americans. This observation was enacted under President Lyndon B. Johnson and was expanded under Ronald Reagan in 1988.

Join in for engaging conversations and informative events about various topics pertaining to Latinx people.

You can stay up-to-date with all future events and Zoom links by scanning the QR
