ISCE NEWS FLASH

August 25, 2020

Welcome back!

While we know this fall semester is unlike any other, we hope the week has started off on a good note. Hopefully, this week's ISCE News Flash will help jump start your thinking about how your research will fit into this new and different semester.

A quick reminder: ISCE has been maintaining an online COVID-19 Publication Repository. If you have recently published any scholarly articles, commentaries, blogs, media mentions or other works related to the pandemic, please send them to us so we can include them. For more information, visit the ISCE website.

Please send any news items to Yancey Crawford at yanceyc3@vt.edu by Friday each week.

Funding Opportunities

NSF Funding for Cybersecurity Education in the Age of AI

The National Science Foundation (NSF) seeks to promote exploration of possible partnerships between artificial intelligence (AI), cybersecurity and education researchers to inspire novel education and outreach efforts. Such collaborative efforts could also foster a robust workforce with integrated AI and cybersecurity competencies, and develop an informed public that understands the privacy, confidentiality, ethics, safety, and security implications of AI. The deadline for round two concept outlines is August 31, 2020. Teams are required to send a research concept outline, including project title, team members, institutions involved, and a summary of the project concept (up to two pages) by email to satc-edu@nsf.gov. Click here for further details in the Dear Colleague Letter.

Deadline: August 31, 2020 (Concept papers)

Robert Wood Johnson Foundation

- Research to Advance Models of Care for Medicaid Population

The Health Systems Transformation Research Coordinating Center (HSTRC), a partnership between the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation and Avalere Health, seeks projects that conduct original research and evaluate the extent to which health system models of care are advancing health equity for the Medicaid-eligible populations they serve. Click here for details.

Deadline: September 2, 2020

- Planning Grant for Equitable Parks and Green Spaces

RWJF seeks proposals that create a plan for a national initiative that would increase equitable access to parks and green spaces in small and midsize cities across the country. This is not a call for proposals for individual cities to participate in a program. Applicants should have experience, expertise, and missions related to elevating equity in decisions, plans, and programs that affect the community conditions in which low income people and people of color live. Applicants should also possess content knowledge about parks and green spaces and related topics, such as climate resilience. Click here for details.

Deadline: September 9, 2020

- Healthy Eating Research

This program, supported by RWJF, is interested in identifying policy, systems, and environmental strategies that have the strongest potential to reduce sugar-sweetened beverage consumption and increase safe drinking water access and intake among low-income and children of color ages 0-5. Eight to 10 grants of up to $225,000 for up to 24 months will be awarded. Click here for details.

Deadline: September 16, 2020 (Required Concept Paper)

RADCLIFFE INSTITUTE FOR ADVANCED STUDY
HARVARD UNIVERSITY

Call for 2021-2022 Radcliffe Fellowships

The Radcliffe Institute for Advanced Study at Harvard University has announced it is accepting applications for its Radcliffe Fellows. Radcliffe Fellows are exceptional scientists, writers, scholars, public intellectuals, practitioners and artists whose work is making a difference in their fields and the larger world. The fellowship program accepts 50 scholars each academic year. Click here for details.

Deadline: September 10, 2020 (Humanities/Social Sciences/Arts)

Institutional Challenge Grant to Reduce Youth Inequality

The W.T. Grant Foundation's Institutional Challenge Grant program supports university-based research institutes and other organizations to build sustained research-practice partnerships with public agencies or nonprofit organizations.

A grant of $650,000 over three years will be awarded to research partnerships in youth-serving areas such as education, justice, child welfare, mental health, immigration, and workforce development. Funding will include up to $50K for up to 9 months of joint planning activities, fellowship support, and up to 3 years of support for the partnership to conduct and use research to reduce inequality in youth outcomes. Click here for details.

Deadline: September 10, 2020

The Greenwall Foundation

Call for Letters of Intent for Bioethics Faculty Scholars

The Greenwall Foundation is accepting applications for its Faculty Scholars Program, which supports research that goes beyond current work in bioethics to address pressing ethical issues and helps create a community focused on enhancing future bioethics research by scholars and alumni/ae. Three scholars are selected to receive 50% salary support over three years and are expected to attend twice yearly meetings. Priority is given to junior faculty and those whose research will have an impact on clinical, biomedical, and public health decision making, policy, and practice. Click here for details.

Deadline: September 21, 2020 (Letters of Intent)
