A visitor to the IET Web site has used your contact form to send the following enquiry.

The form is here: <http://www.theiet.org/resources/contacts/journalsofficer.cfm>

Name: Taeyoung Yang

Subject: Use figures of my published IET paper in my Ph.D dissertation

Their email address: mindlink@vt.edu

Comments:
Dear Sir/Madame:

I am a graduating PhD student from Virginia Tech. I am working on my final dissertation to be submitted to our graduate school.

The submission due is on September 14th, 2012.

So, I wish that I can get permission to use figures of my published IET papers in my dissertation:

(1) All figures from my paper 'Fundamental limits on antenna size: a new limit' published in IET Microwaves, Antennas & Propagation, Volume: 5 , Issue: 11, pp. 1297 - 1302, August 19 2011.

Would you please kindly reply to me with your permission? Or, if there is any action item to the permission grant, please let me know.

Appreciate your prompt help.

Best Regards,

Taeyoung Yang.

Thesis / Dissertation Reuse

The IEEE does not require individuals working on a thesis to obtain a formal reuse license, however, you may print out this statement to be used as a permission grant:

Requirements to be followed when using any portion (e.g., figure, graph, table, or textual material) of an IEEE copyrighted paper in a thesis:

- 1) In the case of textual material (e.g., using short quotes or referring to the work within these papers) users must give full credit to the original source (author, paper, publication) followed by the IEEE copyright line © 2011 IEEE.
- 2) In the case of illustrations or tabular material, we require that the copyright line © [Year of original publication] IEEE appear prominently with each reprinted figure and/or table.
- 3) If a substantial portion of the original paper is to be used, and if you are not the senior author, also obtain the senior author's approval.

Requirements to be followed when using an entire IEEE copyrighted paper in a thesis:

- 1) The following IEEE copyright/ credit notice should be placed prominently in the references: © [year of original publication] IEEE. Reprinted, with permission, from [author names, paper title, IEEE publication title, and month/year of publication]
- 2) Only the accepted version of an IEEE copyrighted paper can be used when posting the paper or your thesis on-line.
- 3) In placing the thesis on the author's university website, please display the following message in a prominent place on the website: In reference to IEEE copyrighted material which is used with permission in this thesis, the IEEE does not endorse any of [university/educational entity's name goes here]'s products or services. Internal or personal use of this material is permitted. If interested in reprinting/republishing IEEE copyrighted material for advertising or promotional purposes or for creating new collective works for resale or redistribution, please go to http://www.ieee.org/publications_standards/publications/rights/rights_link.html to learn how to obtain a License from RightsLink.

If applicable, University Microfilms and/or ProQuest Library, or the Archives of Canada may supply single copies of the dissertation.
