A Fair(y) Use Tale

Professor Eric Faden of Bucknell University created a humorous, yet informative, review of copyright principles delivered through the words of Disney characters -- an ironic bit of commentary given Disney's key role in lengthening copyright terms.

Reason for dispute

This video uses copyrighted material in a manner that does not require approval of the copyright holder. It is a fair use under copyright law.

Explanation

This video was created by Eric Faden of Bucknell University: https://www.teachingcopyright.org/handouts/a-fair\(y\)-use-tale-use-tale), and was licensed for reuse (in its entirety) as CC BY NC SA (Creative Commons attribution, non-commercial, share alike license). I have attributed the original source with a link to where this file is CC licensed; I am using it for a non-commercial purpose (education); and I will apply the same CC license (as required by a share alike license) - thus I comply with all license terms. In the video, at time stamp 9:07-9:12, approximately, the credits display that the song, Rose Leaf Rag, and this specific performance and recording of it, were used with permission. I added this Music Credit statement into the captions/transcription/subtitles to make the citation and recording information clear. Also, my purpose in uploading this video here is to add a correct and thorough transcription / closed caption text - including bracketed text of sounds in addition to words, and bracketed text of words that appear on the screen, so that this video is more accessible for deaf and blind viewers. The automated YouTube transcriptions are neither correct, nor do they capture the text on the screen.

I have a good faith belief that the claim(s) described above have been made in error, and that I have the right(s) necessary to use the contents of my video for the reasons I have stated. I have not knowingly made any false statements, nor am I intentionally abusing this dispute process in order to interfere with the rights of others. I understand that filing fraudulent disputes may result in termination of my YouTube account. I understand that my video will be viewable by the claimant(s) so that they can review my dispute.
