We've got a great opportunity in the Student Government Association a Representative position for next year. We'd love to see campus become more aware of intercultural perspectives and would like to invite you to have at least one Representative serve from your cultural center (more if you're able).

They will need to be an Undergraduate VT student who is available two Tuesday nights at 7 pm in April or May of this year, and who can make Tuesday night meetings at 7 pm next semester.

Now, interested members must email aschrant@vt.edu and let her know their interest by this Wednesday at VoSing is February 26th to 28th on Gobblerconnect, and interested members would need to have a few people they know "write them in" as an At Large or College Representative. However, they now have until 3 pm next Monday submit the Candidate Packet with 50 signatures.

Can a Christian be a Democrat? or a Republican?

February 25 @ 7:30 pm - 9:00 pm

Our political world seems so contentious, with the economy, race, immigration, and health care on center stage. Religious believers have had an important, though contested, role in American political life, from the rise of the “religious right” to interfaith activism. With the Virginia Presidential Primary approaching, two veteran political leaders, from very different points on the political spectrum, explore the interface between faith and politics in contemporary America.

Mike McCurry served as press secretary for former president Bill Clinton, and is Professor of Public Theology at Wesley Theological Seminary

Tim Goglein is Vice President of External and Government Relations for Focus on the Family

Brandy Faulkner, Gloria D. Smith Professor of Africana Studies at Virginia Tech, will moderate.

Co-sponsored by the Department of Political Science and the program in Philosophy, Politics, and Economics (PPE) at Virginia Tech
