

formal permission for the activities expressly listed below:

- one chapter or up to 10% of the total of your single author or co-authored book,
- a maximum of one chapter/article from your contribution to an edited book or collection (e.g. Oxford Handbooks),
- a maximum of one chapter/article of your contribution to an online only, or digital original publication, or
- three figures/illustrations/tables of your own original work

OUP is pleased to grant this permission for the following uses:

- posting on your own personal website or in an institutional or subject based repository after a 12 month period for Science and Medical titles and a 24 month period for Academic, Trade and Reference titles;
- inclusion in scholarly, not-for-profit derivative reuses, (these can include the extension of your contribution to a book-length work, or inclusion in an edited collection of your own work, or any work of which you are an author or editor);
- reproduction within coursepacks or e-coursepacks for your own teaching purposes, (with the proviso that the coursepacks are not sold for more than the cost of reproduction);
- inclusion within your thesis or dissertation.

Permission for these reuses is granted on the following conditions:

- that the material you wish to reuse is your own work and has already been published by OUP;
- that the intended reuse is for scholarly purposes, for publication by a not-for-profit publisher;
- that full acknowledgement is made of the original publication stating the specific material reused [pages, figure numbers, etc.], [Title] by/edited by [Author/editor], [year of publication], reproduced by permission of Oxford University Press [link to OUP catalogue if available, or OUP website];
- In the case of joint-authored works, it is the responsibility of the authors to obtain permission from co-authors for the work to be reuse/republished.
- that reuse on personal websites and institutional or subject based repositories includes a
