Greeting,

My name is Jiangtao Liang, a Ph.D. candidate from Virginia Tech, USA. Recently, I am writing my dissertation, which includes a chapter containing materials published in Cells. Here is the link for my publication <https://doi.org/10.3390/cells9020339>.

The graduate school asked me to provide a letter of copyright release for previously published and/or copyrighted material. The dissertation will be published following CC BY licenses.

If you were the right person to ask, could you please provide me the permission? I appreciated your time.

Thank you,
Jiangtao

Dear Jiangtao,

Thank you very much for your email. This is Beatty from Cells editorial office. Manuscripts published in Cells are open access articles distributed under the Creative Commons Attribution License which permits unrestricted use, distribution, and reproduction in any medium, provided the original work is properly cited.

If you have any other questions, please feel free to tell me. All the best to your doctoral defense! 😊

I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours,
beatty
