

Season's Greetings from VA-MD Vet Med!

Against a background of ever-constant change and turbulence, 2021 has been a year of re-connecting, re-shaping, and re-launching our pursuit of education, research, and community.

The Virginia-Maryland College of Veterinary Medicine is particularly thankful for our college community's inspiring accomplishments, made feasible by our faculty and staff's shared commitment and whole-hearted efforts. We are grateful for all our students, alumni, donors, referring veterinarians, and special friends of the college.
