

Thank you from Math 1536!

About this display:

In the days following April 16, many other schools sent posters, cards, and banners to Virginia Tech to express their solidarity and support over the shootings.

On April 23rd and 24th, students in Math 1536 responded by creating thank-you cards to send back to these schools. I felt that encouraging my students to express gratitude rather than grief would be a healthy way to address the tragedy on the first day back to class.

Math 1536 is a course in geometry and the mathematics of design. Students taking this course are future architects, artists, photographers, landscapers, interior designers, fashion designers, and inventors.

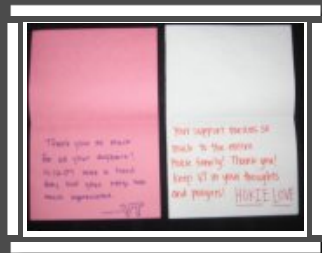

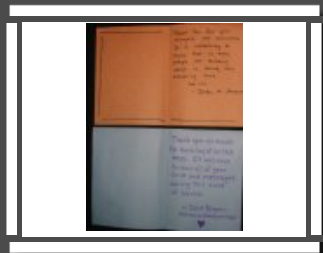

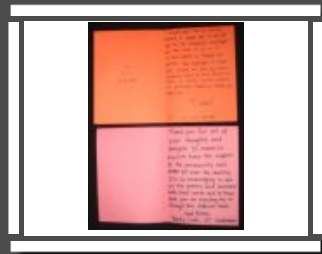

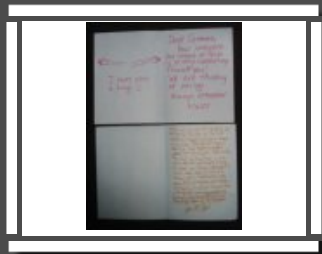

These cards reflect the degree of creativity and talent our students possess. Click on any thumbnail to view larger images.

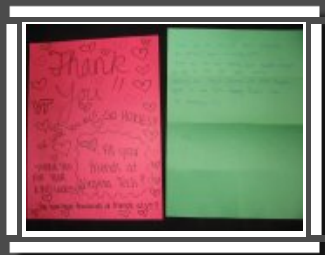

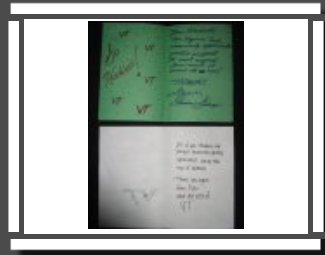

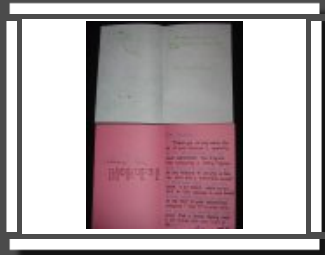

We really do appreciate the many ways that the local and world communities have reached out to us in this sad time.

Thank-you SO MUCH

for your prayers and love. It truly means a lot that ya'll care so much. What happened last Monday was horrible. I woke up that day and there were policemen in my dorm. I asked the janitor what happened, and she did not know. All she said was that she knew that it was going to be a bad day. I went to my first class, which was diagonal from Norris Hall. I had a feeling inside that something was just not right. I knew my feelings were accurate when I looked at the window and saw people sprinting to their cars. Thankfully, one of those people was my older brother. He took me to his apartment that day, where we prayed. I hope that ya'll can look at this tragedy and find strength from it. Finding good in the bad in life is an important lesson to learn. Thank-you for your thoughts and concerns. It meant a lot to not only students, but also the entire Hokie community.

We will prevail!!! We are Virginia Tech!!

Thank you so much for adding to our communities strength and pride. It's a great feeling to know that our human nature unites us when something tragic occurs. Coming together and showing the U.S. and the world that VT will get over this sends a powerful message to those who were not directly effected and in turn helps them understand our grief over the past events. I want to thank you all for all your support and prayers. It's hard to express how greatly appreciated all the support is. We have come together as a school and community and been able to give each other love and support. But it is so comforting to see all the banners, letters, and cards from everyone, seeing people from all across the country even world showing their love and support. So THANK YOU. From the bottom of my heart, Thank You. Love, Meggie Meidlinger

Go Hokies!

The cards and thoughts were wonderful. They brightened my day in this sad time.

Dear Students -

LET'S GO

HOKIES!

I thank you so very much for all of your concerns & sympathy at this difficult time. It's very much appreciated! The Virginia Tech community is holding together pretty strong with your support. We all look forward to carrying on from this event with a tremendous amount of Hokie Pride - which is what this school is all about. While we all here at Tech continue to work toward building bright futures, we wish you all the best in your educational endeavors! Keep VT in mind when you go to college because you could never find a better family that is not already your own. "Let's go Hokies!!!"

Thank you so much
for keeping Virginia Tech in your thoughts and prayers. We are all very appreciative of what you've done for us.
Your kindness brightens
our day.
