Goals

- To transition from Joomla to Drupal per client request
  - To make a more dynamic and easily updated website
  - To create a virtual food drive
- To make minor requested improvements to content of the original website

Editing Manual
Editing

- Flaws with Joomla Site
- New Site:
  - To produce an easier way to update the website without changing structure
  - To be able to make dynamic changes quickly
  - More of a click and drag type of editing
Adding New Content

- Description: Adding new Content to your site and placing it under the right directory.

- Instructions for adding new content:
  1. On your browser go to the Drupal Site.
  2. Go to Content -> Add Content. Here you can select either an article or a basic page.
  3. Fill in your content in the appropriate spaces.
Adding New Content

4. To specify under what menu option the content should belong, go to Menu Settings and enable the “Provide a menu link.”
Adding New Content

5. Under Parent Item you should now be able to select which option you would like your new content to go under.
Adding New Content

6. Under Publishing options unclick “Promoted to front page.”
Save your content.

Virtual Food Drive information

Your donation goes further on the Virtual Food Drive! Thanks to the Food Bank’s wholesale purchasing power and efficient distribution model, a gift made here provides more food than through a traditional food drive — doubling or even tripling the amount of food your dollar can provide at the grocery store. Click “Continue” below to continue to the products page.

Disclaimer: Proceeds from gifts made through this Virtual Food Drive go directly toward the fight to end hunger in Southwest Virginia. Virtual Food Drive prices are based on average costs available at the time of writing.
