Directions:

Members should also enroll in the Horse Management project and keep an accurate and up-to-date management record. Participation in the riding series is strictly on an elective basis. The riding projects should be closely supervised by a horse project leader. Numerous standard references may be used for completing the diagrams, questions, etc. Members should have the basic equipment for riding and the use of a suitable riding animal.

All leaders should obtain all of the materials available and review project opportunities. Programs may be adjusted to local needs and use under the direct supervision of Extension Agents and Leaders. Age requirements for completing the riding units are as follows: Novice - 10 years or older; Horseman - 13 years or older; Horsemaster - 16 years or older. Horsemasters should be expert horsemen and top-notch 4-H members capable of professional contributions to and employment in the industry.

Members may enroll for each unit as many times as desirable and may progress according to their interests and abilities. Many will not advance beyond the first or second levels, and there should be no special distinction between levels as far as youth development is concerned. The goal is not to make Horsemasters out of all who are interested in horses. Horsemasters may continue on as teen leaders, repeat the unit, or design new horse projects.

Members may complete some tests on horses other than their own or managed project. Most projects should be on a project-year basis, but progression should not necessarily be limited to this. The projects will require inspectors for certain tests. The selection and implementation of this should be arranged at the local level and/or county level. Leaders can establish the appropriate procedures and approvals for inspectors at these levels. The tests are not competitive, and many tests can be replaced by alternate tests designed by leaders according to local needs and interests.

All new members should enroll in the basic unit, but those who have previous experience should be advanced into the higher units as soon as they demonstrate that they are capable. A member may be working on sections in two or more units at the same time, then complete each unit as his or her age fills the requirement. The 100-mile ride for Horsemasters may be made by using more than one horse. This ride should be supervised by a distance rider and/or veterinarian. The basic unit may be used for new members prior to admitting them to the novice unit, or used for any member not wishing to go through the progressive series. Completing the basic unit prior to enrolling in the novice unit is a requirement. The completed Horsemaster book should be sent to the state Extension Horse Specialist for review and approval.
