

VITA
Henry Iroegbu

Henry completed his doctoral program in the Department of Hospitality and Tourism Management at Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University in Fall semester, 2001. He specialized in hospitality and tourism market development strategies with minor in finance and economic development. He obtained his MBA from university of District of Columbia in Washington DC, and a BS in business administration and management from Virginia Commonwealth University in Richmond Virginia.

Prior to his doctoral program, Henry had worked in several positions in the hospitality and tourism industry, taught college level management and business courses, consulted for small businesses in risk management and corporate taxes. He held the post of a director of operations with international Business Ward Inc., in Richmond Virginia. Also, he is a member of Export/Import club (Richmond Chapter), Richmond Venture Capital Club, Chamber of Commerce, Africa/US chamber of Commerce, National Human Resources Association, MBA Association, Travel and Tourism Research Association, and was the vice-president of Graduate Hospitality and Tourism Association (Virginia Tech Chapter).

With his diverse academic and professional background, Henry focuses in international hospitality and tourism investment strategies. His research interests are in Hospitality financial strategic planning, International Trade/Tourism development, and Distribution of Regional Tourism Resources.