

VITA

Rikke Granum Andersen was born on July 20, 1972 in Aalborg, Denmark. She graduated from Nørresundby Gymnasium in 1991. Upon graduation she went to Syracuse, NY for a year as an Au Pair for an American family. In 1998 she obtained her Masters degree in Environmental Engineering from Aalborg University. She worked as an environmental consultant and project manager for Niras Consulting Engineers and Planners in Aalborg. In 2001 she began her doctorate degree program in Civil and Environmental Engineering at the Virginia Polytechnical Institute in Blacksburg, VA working with phytoremediation of contaminated soil and groundwater.