

Dear Dr. McFadden,

Authors need not obtain permission for the following uses of material they have published in PNAS: (1) to use their original figures or tables in their future works; (2) to make copies of their papers for their classroom teaching; or (3) to include their papers as part of their dissertations.

Of course, citation to the original source should be included and copies should include the copyright notice of the original report [full journal reference and "Copyright (copyright year) National Academy of Sciences, U.S.A."].

Please feel free to contact us with any additional questions you might have.

Best regards,

Dear PNAS Editor:

I am completing a doctoral dissertation at Virginia Tech entitled "High Resolution Stratigraphy of the Doushantuo Formation, South China ." I would like your permission to reprint in my dissertation excerpts from the following:

Kathleen A. McFadden, Jing Huang, Xuelei Chu, Ganqing Jiang, Alan J. Kaufman, Chuanming Zhou, Xunlai Yuan, and Shuhai Xiao; Pulsed oxidation and biological evolution in the Ediacaran Doushantuo Formation; PNAS 2008 105:3197-3202; published ahead of print February 25, 2008, doi:10.1073/pnas.0708336105

The excerpts to be reproduced are: Figures 1 and 2; supplementary figures S1 through S5; supplementary data and Table 1

The requested permission extends to any future revisions and editions of my dissertation, including non-exclusive world rights in all languages, and to the prospective publication of my dissertation by UMI Company. These rights will in no way restrict republication of the material in any other form by you or by others authorized by you. Your signing of this letter will also confirm that you own [or your company owns] the copyright to the above-described material.

If these arrangements meet with your approval, please sign this letter where indicated below and return it to me in the enclosed return envelope. Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Kathleen A. McFadden
