TABLE OF CONTENTS

ABSTRACT ................................................................. i
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS .................................................... iii
DEDICATION ............................................................. v
TABLE OF CONTENTS ................................................... vi

CHAPTER ONE: INTRODUCTION .......................................... 1
  Reflections on Kipps Elementary School and the Basic School .......... 1
  School as Community ............................................... 4
  Curriculum with Coherence ......................................... 6
  Climate for Learning ................................................ 7
  Commitment to Character .......................................... 8
  Personal Reflections ................................................. 9
  Statement of the Problem ......................................... 12
  Purpose of the Study ............................................. 13
  Research Questions ............................................... 13
  Significance of the Study ....................................... 13

CHAPTER TWO: REVIEW OF LITERATURE ............................... 14
  Research Supporting The Basic School ................................ 14
  Research Since the Publication of The Basic School ................. 17

CHAPTER THREE: DESIGN OF STUDY .................................. 21
  Focus of Inquiry .................................................... 21
  Research Design ................................................... 21
  Methods ............................................................ 22
    Sampling Strategy ............................................... 22
    Data Collection Procedures .................................. 23
    Procedures for Data Analysis ................................ 26
  Personal Reflections .............................................. 27

CHAPTER FOUR: FINDINGS ............................................ 30
  Teachers as Team Members: Family Structure ....................... 32
  Boyer’s Beliefs .................................................... 32
  The Kipps Experience with Family Structure ....................... 33
  Learning from Our Experience .................................... 35
  School as Community Priority .................................... 39
  Boyer’s Beliefs .................................................... 39