

VITA

John Bourbeau

John Bourbeau was born in Dubuque, Iowa and educated in the public schools of Davenport, Iowa, and Modesto, California. He received a Bachelor of Business Administration Degree from the University of Hawaii (Manoa) at the age of 19 and a Master of Public Administration Degree from California State University, Stanislaus in Turlock, California. He received his PhD in Public Administration from Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University (Virginia Tech) in Blacksburg, Virginia. His research focus has been in the area of privatization and private government.

Mr. Bourbeau is currently employed with the United States Army as a senior program analyst at Redstone Arsenal (RSA) in Huntsville, Alabama. Before coming to RSA, Mr. Bourbeau worked in Washington D.C., seven years at the Office of the Secretary of Defense (Comptroller), six years at the Naval Sea Systems Command, one year at Walter Reed Army Medical Center, and a short time at the Executive Office of the President.