

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

... For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask more (Luke 12:48). I am so blessed and give praise to my Creator for my many gifts. I am so grateful to my Committee for recognizing my gifts and talents by always seeking to draw the very best of them out of me in a nurturing way. Each of you has taken every opportunity to strengthen my resolve as a researcher, while nurturing my development as a human being. My sincerest appreciation and heart-felt thanks. I have learned so much both personally and professionally.

To Karren Bailey and Brenda Corprew-Berkitt, I am especially thankful for your technical expertise and endless support. To my friends and childcare providers Keith and Bonita McPhearson for caring for and loving my children as if they were their own. To my endearing friends Patricia, Patti, John, Henry, Lawrence, Martha, and Cathy, whose belief in me and never-ending encouragement were my pillars of strength and support.

Lastly, to my family, my husband Medicus and our daughters Lorene and Nia, my parents Donald and Loretta Bryant, and my sisters Michele and Christine. Thank you for your understanding and being the wind beneath my wings. I am everything I am because you all love and believe in me.