

VITA

Joseph V. Saitta received an Associate's in Arts degree in General Studies from Prince George's Community College in 1967. He earned a Bachelor's of Arts in Anthropology from the University of Maryland in 1971, followed in 1977 by a Master's of Arts in Higher Education from the George Washington University. He has been married for 31 years, and has two adult sons.

He has served as the Director of the Public Safety Institute for the past 20 years. The Institute provides contract instructional services to federal, state and local public safety agencies. Saitta has conducted training programs in all 50 states and abroad.

He has also served as an infantryman in Vietnam, a criminal investigator for the U.S. Treasury Department, and a career Deputy Chief in a municipal fire agency.