

Nina Pebworth Adams

Dr. Adams began her post-secondary education at Radford University (Radford, VA) where she graduated in 1983 with a degree in English. Following graduation, she began working in Martinsville, Virginia, as first a newspaper columnist and then as a receptionist/bookkeeper for a plumbing and electrical supply company. In 1985, she gained employment with Henry County Public Schools (VA) where she continues to serve as a secondary English instructor. She earned a master's degree in reading from Averett College (Danville, VA) in 1993 and a doctorate degree in curriculum and instruction from Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University in 1998.