

Vita

Jennifer Wade Huffman, daughter of James M. and Patricia A. Huffman was born on August 3, 1972 in Beckley, WV. She grew up in Beaver, WV and graduated salutatorian from Shady Spring High School in 1990. In 1993, she graduated Summa Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Science degree in Mathematics from Concord College in Athens, WV and received her Bachelor of Science degree in Mathematics Education from Concord in 1994. She was awarded the Bruce Covey Mathematics Prize for achievement in her major. In August 1994, she entered the graduate program in Statistics at Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University in Blacksburg, Virginia. She completed the requirements for a Master of Science degree in Statistics in December 1995 and was awarded the Klaus Hinkelmann Award for the Outstanding Graduate Assistant in 1997. She received her Doctor of Philosophy degree in Statistics in July 1998.