

Laura E. Teany earned her Bachelor's of Science degree in Biological Systems Engineering at Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University in May of 2002. She is currently the Environmental/Agricultural Research Manager for the Biological Systems Engineering Department at Virginia Tech. Laura lives on her family farm in near Christiansburg, VA, which she continues to operate.