

Jen McLeran

EDUCATION:

1995-2000 Master of Architecture - Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University.

1984-1988 Bachelor of Mechanical Engineering, Georgia Institute of Technology.

WORK EXPERIENCE:

1996-1999 Graduate Assistant, Virginia Tech, Blacksburg, VA.

Teaching Assistant for Survey of Architecture History course for academic year 98/99.

One of three teaching assistants for 200 students. Responsible for conducting weekly discussion sessions and grading portions of tests and assignments.

1988-1995 Surface Warfare Officer, United States Navy.

Instructor, Surface Warfare Officer School Department Head Course, Newport, RI, November 92 - January 95.

Primary responsibilities included preparing lesson plans and instructing prospective department heads of the U.S. surface fleet in operational message writing and combat logistics planning.

Division Officer, USS CONCORD (AFS-5), home ported in Norfolk, VA, May 89 - October 92.

General division officer responsibilities included the training and evaluation of division personnel, ensuring the maintenance and cleanliness of division equipment and spaces, writing operational messages and reports.

As Navigator, supervised 7 people and was responsible for the safe navigation of the ship for voyages in the Caribbean and Mediterranean Seas, and off the Atlantic coast of the U.S.

As the Combat Information Center Officer, supervised 16 people and was additionally responsible for the safekeeping of the ship's entire inventory of classified publications.

Qualified in various watch positions including Officer of the Deck underway and Command Duty Officer. In each of these positions was responsible directly to the commanding officer for the safe operation of the ship and the execution of its mission.