

LIBERATIVE SPACE

Milia Boroyevich

Thesis submitted to the Faculty of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the degree of

MASTER OF ARCHITECTURE

Approved:

Heinrich Schnödt

Frank Weiner, Chairman

William Brown

Michael O'Brien

March, 2002
Blacksburg, Virginia

Keywords: Space, Aperspective Space, School.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Many thanks to my professors for support that challenged me and enabled me to grow rather than indoctrinating me.

Special thanks to:

Frank for continuous support from the first year and for always seeing noble and bigger issues,

Heiner who helped me translate my ideas into architecture in such way that they get enriched and refined,

B. Brown for wonderful theoretical base that helped me formulate and understand my position in architecture,

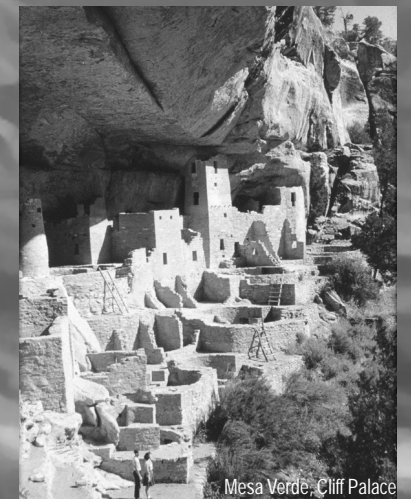

M. O'Brien for helping me make the first set of professional drawings,

My daughter Maryana, my son Milosh and my husband Dushan for showing patience, support and interest in my work and architecture.

CONTENTS

Prologue: Architecture	7
Liberative Space:	9
Wandering Through a Liberative Space	11
School as an Institution:	21
Plaza
A perspective Space:	29
Theatre
A Gentle Touch on Space Infinity:	33
Wall Planes
Columns
Roof Planes
Project:	39
Site
Plan
Section
Making
Literature	49
Vita	51

"Architecture is a direct expression of existence of human presence in the world."¹

Mesa Verde National Park, from the air.

¹Juhani Pallasmaa, The Geometry of Feeling - a look at the phenomenology of architecture, Arkkitehti No3, 1985

