

VITA

Jason William Jones was born in Texarkana, TX on May 7, 1976. In May 1998, he obtained his Bachelors of Science in Chemistry from the College of William and Mary in Virginia, as well as a minor in Economics. He enrolled at the Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University the same year, completing his coursework and research for the degree of Master of Science in Chemistry during the Spring of 2001 with the aid and guidance of Prof. Harry W. Gibson. Still enrolled at VPI&SU, he is currently continuing his research and coursework for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in Chemistry with the same advisor.