Top of the World Estates
Environment
Waste
Air
Utilize on-site biological waste treatment when possible
Minimize waste; recycle and reuse
Utilize vegetation to capture pollution particles to improve air quality
Promote public transportation &pedestrian travel to reduce pollution emissions
Public uses should be setback outside of the Zone of Significant Contamination
A biological waste treatment facility is used to treat much of the community's waste. The remainder of the community's waste treatment is land based.
Waste is discouraged; composting is demonstrated and encouraged by the Farm.
Recycling is encouraged, on-site collection is available for communtiy residents.
New plant material that is installed must be known to reduce airborne pollutants
Pedestrian travel is encouraged within the community via walking and bicycling paths
Not Applicable