

Acknowledgments

I would first like to thank my advisor and mentor, Dr. Shannon Jarrott, who has provided me with guidance for this research. Her support, advice, and significant feedback, helped me through this academic research process. I am grateful to the other professors on my committee, Dr. Blieszner and Dr. Mancini, for their time, counsel and insight into my research. Special thanks to Dr. Alison Galway, director of the Virginia Tech Adult Day Service, who provided me the opportunity to work at the ADS, and to get to know the participants who served as an inspiration for my research and professional career.

It has been a pleasure collaborating with my colleagues. Special thanks to Melissa Gladwell, Christina Gigliotti and Annie Eagan for their help in conducting the activities and collecting the data, and to Sara Kretzer who provided me the moral support throughout my graduate studies.

Finally, on a personal note, I would like to thank my wonderful family; my loving and supporting husband Ran who encouraged me to join the academic journey, my children Tsach and Noa who bring happiness to our lives, and my loving and devoted parents Nili and Rimom who came all the way to Blacksburg to support us and make this all possible to complete.
