WORK EXPERIENCE

Daughtrey & Haag, PC
1/2003 - Present
Williamsburg, Virginia

Staff Accountant

Perform financial statement audits by obtaining and analyzing evidence corroborating financial statement assertions. Procedures include conducting interviews, inspecting source documentation, and preparing memoranda for workpaper files. In addition, assess viability of the audited entity as a going concern through analysis of macro- and microeconomic conditions that impact the firm.

Prepare tax returns, draft correspondence to the Internal Revenue Service and state tax agencies, conduct tax research, and engage in transactional planning. (Supervisor's Name: Penny Dee Haag, Supervisor's Phone: 757-229-5522)

Witt Mares PC (formerly Eggleston Smith PC)

1/1994 - 1/2003

Newport News, Virginia

Staff Accountant/Tax Manager

Performed tax research utilizing congressional statutes, Treasury regulations, court decisions, and other sources to structure prospective business transactions in the most tax-advantaged manner. Communicated research results in writing using Microsoft Word and Excel, as well as in oral presentations to clients and other interested parties such as attorneys and bankers.

Prepared memoranda and reports summarizing the facts and issues germane to particular tax situations and explaining the application of relevant tax law. Reports typically addressed the hazards of audit/litigation and quantified the tax implications of various outcomes.

Performed business valuations by analyzing firms' future profitability in the context of macroeconomic conditions and trends, localized factors such as level of competition and regulatory environment, and firm-specific characteristics such as financial condition and strength of workforce. (Supervisor's Name: Michael S. Haigh, Supervisor's Phone: 757-873-1587)
