

VITA

Fulin, Zhu

Fulin, Zhu was born in Taixin, China on February 22, 1975. After completing the high school study at Taixin High School with High Honors, he joined the Civil Engineering program of Tsinghua University in Beijing, China. Upon completion of his studies at Tsinghua University in June 1998 he joined the University of Mississippi, where he spent one year studying in highway design.

In May 1999, he transferred to the Department of Civil Engineering at Virginia Polytechnic Institute & State University, to pursue a Master's degree with a specialization in Transportation System Engineering. He worked as a Research Assistant at the Transportation Institute (Formally CTR) at Virginia Tech. He is a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE), the Institute of Transportation Engineer (ITE), the Intelligent Transportation Society of America (ITS America) and a full member of China Society of Civil Engineers (CSCE).

He is expected to join Wilbur Smith Associates in Columbus, Ohio to work as a Traffic/ITS Engineer.