

DEDICATION

This thesis is dedicated to all of those individuals who have by their example encouraged us to demand equality for all human beings and make any sacrifices necessary to forward that end. It is dedicated to all of those people who have suffered for being different and yet persevered. Finally it is dedicated to future generations. May you achieve the beauty, and equality and enlightenment that I can only dream of.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This thesis would have not been possible without the constant encouragement and faithful assistance of several individuals who are tremendously worthy of my gratitude.

First, I would like to thank Dr. Beth M. Waggenspack, my thesis chair and friend. Dr. Waggenspack was my primary motivation for returning to complete this daunting task. Throughout the process of writing, re-writing, editing, and re-writing again Dr. Waggenspack has offered unconditional support and held me accountable for providing updates and meeting deadlines. Without her encouragement I would still be writing page one.

Second, I would like to thank Dr. John C. Tedesco for his support and aid. Without Dr. Tedesco's assistance I would not have been able to return to graduate school let alone complete this thesis.

Third, I would like to thank Dr. Edward H. Sewell, Jr. for his participation on my committee. I have been inspired by Dr. Sewell's passion, enlightened by his perspective, and challenged by his criticism.

Finally, I would like to thank the friends and family who supported and motivated me throughout this process. Thank you Sue for helping me find myself and for reminding me that I was worthy of earned accomplishments. Thank you Mom and Dad for providing me with a strong work ethic and a desire to succeed. Above all, thank you Kevin. Knowing you makes me want to continually strive to improve myself. I could not have done it without you.

I am grateful to you all.
