

Figure 3.2. Plot of uncorrected radiocarbon age versus A/I ratio. The line represents the best fit correlation with a regression value of $r^2=0.925$. Points are average values for shells with standard deviation based on reparations shown. The mean A/I value for live-collected specimens estimates the radiocarbon reservoir age (ca. 510 yr.)