Dear Brandon Martin:

You have our permission to include content from our text, E-COMMERCE BASICS: TECHNOLOGY FOUNDATIONS AND E-BUSINESS APPLICATIONS, 1st Ed. by DAVIS, WILLIAM S.; BENAMATI, JOHN, in your thesis titled: Opportunities for an online GIS Based Wood Supply Management System. This material will be presented as research, which details how e-commerce and GIS technologies can streamline forest industry activities and lead to greater productivity, better decision making, less cost and eventually greater profits. This research will be presented to Professor Stephen Prisley, at Virginia Tech.

Content to be included is:

P. 108 Figure 4.5 The three categories of e-commerce are pieces of a larger integrated structure.

The material will be stored online at Virginia Tech and will also be printed in hard copy. The hard copies of the thesis, will be kept within the College of Natural Resources Department Head files.

Please credit our material as follows:
