

PERSON

Lyndl Thorsen Youssef

WORK HISTORY

Great Seal Incorporated, Alexandria, Virginia 1995 - Present

Principle. Responsibilities include the planning and design of residential projects. Projects include renovations, additions and new home construction. Working with Homeowners, and Contractors in the Washington DC, Metro area.

Santa Fe Enterprises, Alexandria, Virginia 1980 - 1985

Principle Marketing and Creative Director. Responsible for the Design and Development of publicity and promotional campaigns, for corporate and government clients. Designed over 75 Corporate Identifications (Logos) and accompanying print and graphic applications for clients which include the Smithsonian Marine Systems Laboratory, Defense and Diplomacy Magazine, The Richmond Symphony, Digital Information Systems Corporation, Flex Can, Plantation House to name a few. Projects include Package Design, vehicular and pedestrian graphics for the World Bank, identification for the Smithsonian Airplane and Boat. Design of an international exhibition on Soviet Dis-information for the US Information Agency & preparation of other designs for the board of Architectural review, PBS, the EPA, US Patent Office, and many others.

Reynolds Metals Company, Richmond, Virginia 1978 - 1981

Worked with senior management, in the Styling and Design Department to implement both external and internal corporate print communications, and public relations. Including all phases of design and production.

EDUCATION

Masters in Architecture 2005

Virginia Tech, Alexandria Virginia

Applied Science Program

NOVA Community College, Alexandria Virginia

BFA Communication Arts and Design 1977

Virginia Commonwealth University, Richmond.

Foundation Arts Program

Corcoran College of Art & Design, Washington.

AWARDS/COMMUNITY SERVICE

Resource Panel Member, Alexandria Commission for the Arts, 1994

Television Interview on Corporate Identity, Alexandria Cable TV, 1983

Planning Committee, Art Directors Club of Metro Washington 1981

Member Board of Architectural Review, Alexandria, VA 1980

Certificate of Distinction, VA Museum Designers Exhibition, Richmond, 1980

Served as Underwater Photographer for the Smithsonian Marine Systems Lab Carabibbean Sea, 1980

Bronze Addie Award, Mid-Atlantic Region 1979

Bicentennial Illustration, Novum Gebrauchs Graphik (German Magazine) 1979

Television interview for a PR Campaign on an environmental issue 1976