

Vitae

Dr. Gregory Sean Steeno, son of Gerald James Steeno and Sheryl Mae Hall-Clark, brother of Jennifer Ann Sfreddo and Daniel Malcolm Clark, was born on April 13, 1967 in Arlington, Virginia. He grew up in the northern Virginia area and graduated Herndon High School in 1985. After a couple of years employed at Hidden Creek Country Club in Reston, Virginia, he returned to the academic environment in 1990 by enrolling at Northern Virginia Community College where he developed an affinity for the field of statistics. He transferred to Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University in 1992 and graduated Magna Cum Laude in August 1994 with a Bachelor of Science in Statistics. During this time, he became a member of the Phi Beta Kappa National Honor Society and the Mu Sigma Rho National Statistics Honor Society. In August 1994, he entered the graduate program in Statistics at Virginia Tech and graduated in December 1995 with a Master of Science. While in graduate school, he served as Treasurer of Mu Sigma Rho, Virginia Alpha Chapter from 1995-1996 and President of Mu Sigma Rho, Virginia Alpha Chapter from 1996-1997. On August 3, 1999, he received his Doctor of Philosophy in Statistics. Currently, Dr. Steeno is employed at Pfizer, Inc. with the Mathematical and Statistical Science Group, in Groton, Connecticut. His outside interests include tennis, racquetball, basketball, computers, and German.
