

VITA

Regine Ndole Mankolo was born in 1956 in Bangangte Cameroon. She received her primary education in Cameroon. She went in high school in “Lycee de New Bell in Cameroon” and Lycee de Gisors in France” from 1971 to 1979. She graduated in 1983 from the University of Dschang in Cameroon as an “Ingenieur de travaux agricoles”. She served as a Research Technician at IRA (Agronomic Research Institute) in the farming system IRA/NCRE project.

The author began her M.S. program in the Department of Crop and Environmental Sciences at the Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University the Spring of 1992 and completed her M.S. degree in Spring 1994.

She enrolled in the Ph.D. program in the same Department and University in the Fall 1994 and received her Ph.D. in the Fall 1997.