

VITA

Norwood McMillian was born March 23,1945 in Fair Bluff, North Carolina. He was graduated from Westside High School in Chadbourn, North Carolina. He was a real estate developer and property management specialist before making a decision to pursue a life-long desire to teach.

He received a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Management from Guilford College, Greensboro, North Carolina in 1974. He further pursued graduate education at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. There he received a Master's degree in Business Education. At present the researcher is a professor of Business Management at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

He works with the Community College articulation effort at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. He has also been active in Delta Pi Epsilon and is a member of Omicron Tau Theta. He lives in Greensboro, N.C.