Dear Ms. Crow:

As you know, I am completing a doctoral dissertation at Virginia Tech entitled "Organizational Identity- Power in Practice: The Rhetorics of University Identity," and I would like your permission to reprint in my dissertation excerpts from the following:

- The Virginia Tech Brand and Brand Platform (<http://www.branding.unirel.vt.edu/brand/>)
- The Virginia Tech "Identity Standards and University Style Guide"
- The Virginia Tech Brand Ambassador Program

The excerpts to be reproduced include textual aspects of the Brand Platform, quotations and paraphrases from the style guide, and images, such as logos, wordmarks, advertisements, and photographs from associated websites, presentations, and publications.

The requested permission extends to any future revisions and editions of my dissertation, including non-exclusive world rights in all languages, and to the prospective publication of my dissertation by UMI Company. These rights will in no way restrict republication of the material in any other form by you or by others authorized by you. Your signing of this letter will also confirm that your organization owns the copyright to the above-described material.

If these arrangements meet with your approval, please sign this letter where indicated below and return it to me in the enclosed return envelope. Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Matthew R. Sharp
