

The Perceived Impact of The Prince Edward County School Closing on One Family's Educational Achievements and Occupational Choices in Adulthood:
A Study in Recollective Memory

Linda Eanes Jefferson

Dissertation submitted to the faculty of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute & State University in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy
In Human Development

Marcie Boucouvalas, Chair
Roland Havis
Linda Morris
Paul Renard

March 27, 2015

Virginia Polytechnic Institute & State University
National Capital Region
Falls Church, VA

Key Words: Achievements, Adult learning, Civil Rights, Life-long learning, Narratology, Recollective Memory, Self-directed learning

Copyright 2015 Linda Eanes Jefferson

They Closed Our Schools PBS Documentary Marketing Card (c. 2003). Copyright Mercy Seat Films. (2003). They Closed Our Schools [DVD Documentary]. United States. www.mercyseatfilms.com

I grant Linda Eanes Jefferson permission to include this image and hyperlink of Mercy Seat Films' They Closed Our Schools marketing card (c. 2003) in her dissertation research study,

The Perceived Impact of The Prince Edward County School Closing
on One Family's Educational Achievements and Occupational Choices in Adulthood:
A Study in Recollective Memory,

which will be submitted in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in Human Development at Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University.

Name (please print) Brian Grogan

Signature Brian Grogan Date 10 April 2015

Phone (Home) 804 303-4020

(Cell) 510 847-9566

(Other) _____

E-Mail bgrogan@mercyseatfilms.com

*Please return in the enclosed Self-addressed, stamped envelope to Linda Eanes Jefferson
4300 Red Cedar Ct.
Disputanta, VA 23842*

or

Scan and e-mail to ljefferson78@gmail.com

Thank you,
Linda Eanes Jefferson