BARTLETT'S MAINE ESTATE WINERY

by

Mark Tracy Bittle

Thesis submitted to the Graduate Faculty of Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the degree of

MASTER OF ARCHITECTURE

APPROVED BY:

__________________________
William Brown, Chairman

__________________________
Hans Christian Rott

__________________________
Wolfgang Schueler

May 1989
Blacksburg, Virginia
BARTLETT'S MAINE ESTATE WINERY

by

Mark T. Bittle

William Brown, Chairman

Architecture and Urban Studies

(ABSTRACT)

A house is a place of solitude, refuge and intimacy. A winery is a place of meeting, time and vulnerability. This thesis integrates the public realms of a winery and the private domain of a house using concrete walls as barriers, boundaries and structure.
THOUGHTS 1

WINERY 5

SOURCES 16

VITA 17
“Live together like brothers
Do business like strangers.”

Arab Proverb

The vita has been removed from the scanned document