

IAWA Archivist's Report for 2005/06

Gail McMillan and Amy Shaffer Vilelle

Digital Library and Archives, University Libraries, Virginia Tech

HIGHLIGHTS

The Digital Library and Archives creates, maintains, and provides access to a variety of popular online and offline information resources about the International Archive of Women in Architecture. During fiscal year 2005/06, the IAWA website (<http://spec.lib.vt.edu/iawa/>) was accessed over 294,170 times by users in 126 countries. The IAWA Biographical Database (http://lumiere.lib.vt.edu/iawa\_db) hosts information about 652 women representing 48 countries and 42 states/territories in the United States. VT ImageBase (<http://imagebase.lib.vt.edu/>) provides access to 1,195 images from 28 IAWA collections.

DLA devotes over 1,200 cubic feet of shelving to the 298 collections in the IAWA, including eight new collections received this year [8 cu. ft.]. The IAWA Guide to Collections (Appendix B) provides a brief description of each collection and the online version of the Guide links Internet users to detailed inventories and finding aids for over 125 collections. Three architecture graduate students assisted Amy Vilelle, Interim Manuscripts Curator, in processing five IAWA collections this year.

ACCESSIONS

New Collections

DLA received eight new collections [2.3 cu. ft.], including materials for three projects of Nan Croley's (1939-2006) donated by her former employer, John Matthews Architects, and her friend, Wendy Bertrand. Landscape architect Harriet Pattison, ASLA, of Pennsylvania donated autobiographical materials. E. Maria Roth of Blacksburg, Virginia, brought in materials representing three of her projects. Biographical materials for Leila Ross Wilburn came to the IAWA from James McManus who compiled them for his successful application to have Wilburn recognized as Georgia Woman of the Year in 2002.
