

Identifying and Exploring Capacity & Readiness of Faith-Based Organizations Implementing Lifestyle-Related Chronic Disease Health Programs

Monica Motley

Dissertation submitted to the faculty of Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the degree of

Doctor of Philosophy
In Biomedical and Veterinary Sciences

Kathryn Hosig, Chair

Elena Serrano

Kerry Redican

Tina Savla

September 16th, 2015
Blacksburg, VA

Key Words: (faith based health programs, capacity, readiness, churches, assessment)

eburke@bgcva.org

Monica [grid icon] [notification icon] [profile icon M]

Error checking mail for motley@pop.vt.edu. Details Dismiss

Mail

← [archive icon] [trash icon] Move to Inbox [dropdown icon] More

1 of 35 [back icon] [forward icon] [list icon] [settings icon]

COMPOSE

Inbox (5,705)
Starred
Important
Sent Mail
Drafts (355)

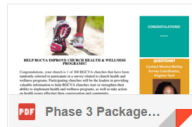

Circles

- Friends
- Family (1)
- Acquaintances

Oops! You are not invisible because you're logged into Google Talk from another client, device, or location that doesn't support invisibility.

Search people...

- Emma Potter
- Katherine Allen
- Marjorie R. Willner

People (2)

Dr. J. E. Burke

Add to circles

[share icon] [email icon]

Show details

eburke@bgcva.org to me Oct 12 (7 days ago) ☆ [reply icon]

Hello, and Congratulations! Yes, by all means you may use my picture in your dissertation. Thanks again for all of your help on various aspects of our health ministry.

Take care,

Rev. Dr. J. Elisha Burke
Director, Health, Wellness, Men & Social Justice
Baptist General Convention of Virginia
1214 West Graham Road
Richmond, VA 23220
804-228-2421 - Office
804-228-1998 - Fax
eburke@bgcva.org - email
www.bgcva.org