

Open doors for research and creativity with Dr. Lorena Barba and Virginia Tech's Destination Areas

Join us at the Destination Areas Global Speaker Series October 26 - 27, 2017

The University Libraries, Pamplin College of Business, and College of Engineering welcome you to DAGSS, a meeting of international minds.

The event will consist of three open sessions:

Oct. 26 | Newman Library, Multipurpose Room (101S)

11 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. | Teaching in STEM Disciplines: Open Source Methods
3:30 - 4:30 p.m. | What Savvy Open Scholars Know and Do

Oct. 27 | Newman Library, Classroom 207A

10 - 11:30 a.m. | Gender and Diversity in Engineering

You will walk away from DAGSS with practical knowledge of open and reproducible scholarship and learn the overall value of open source philosophy in research.

You will also have the opportunity to network with globally renowned researchers.
