

Virginia Tech in the 1960s

In HIST 2984 - A Nation Divided: America in the 1960s, history students research the evolving nature of student life at Virginia Tech over the course of the 1960s.

This exhibit highlights the events and trends that defined the student experience and places them within the larger historical context of the 1960s.

Marian Mollin
Associate Professor
History Department

May 1 - August 10
Newman Library 2nd floor near Fusion

Created by the
COURSE EXHIBIT INITIATIVE

UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES
VIRGINIA TECH.