

Study Abroad Photo Exhibit

Experience the world through the lens of a Hokie.

Photo of students on the Creating Sustainable Social Change study abroad program in Switzerland and East Africa.

Each year, Virginia Tech students participate in study abroad programs spanning the globe. In the fall, the Global Education Office holds its annual photo contest designed to celebrate the colorful experiences of students, faculty, and staff all over the world.

The photos included in this exhibit represent a number of contest submissions throughout the years.
