

ASPECT Events, Spring 2019

ASPECT Working Paper

"Rethinking Revolutionary Anti-Capitalism Through Pacific Decolonization"

Allan Lumba (History)

Wednesday, February 27

Time: 3:00-5:00 pm

CLAHS Building, Conference room 005

Respondents:

Bikrum Gill (ASPECT and Political Science)

Shelby Ward (ASPECT PhD candidate)

ASPECT Books

Wednesday, March 6

Time: 4:00-6:00 pm

Shanks Hall, Room 370-380

Featuring the following authors:

Kwame Harrison (Sociology)

Caitlin Jewitt (Political Science)

Marian Mollin (History)

Ninth Annual ASPECT Graduate Conference

Thursday, March 21-Saturday, March 23

Conference Theme: "Rethinking Otherness in the Age of Neoliberalism"

Confirmed Featured Speaker:

Alex Barder (Florida International University)

Location: Squires Center

ASPECT Working Paper

"Global Corporate Power as World Order: A New Framework on Corporate Sovereign Responsibility"

Swati Srivastava (Purdue University)

Friday, April 12

Time: 2:30-4:40 pm

Major Williams Hall, Room 502

Respondents:

Mauro Caraccioli (ASPECT and Political Science)

Judson Abraham (ASPECT PhD candidate)

ASPECT Working Paper

"Kisses at the Memorial: Affective Objects, US Militarism, and Feminist Resistance at Sites of Wartime Memory"

Audrey Reeves (ASPECT and Political Science)

Monday, April 29

Time: 4:00-6:00 pm

Major Williams Hall, Room 502

Respondents:

Jessica Taylor (History)

Linea Cutter (ASPECT PhD student)

All events organized and sponsored by: ASPECT, 202 Major Williams Hall (0192), aspect@vt.edu