Legend:
- Residential/Retail Zone
- Historical/Public Zone
- Lines of Sight

Site Analysis

Together with the concrete exterior wall of the new building, the curved curtain wall strengthens the division between the historical public area and the commercial stores.

At the same time, a stepped walking path follows the curve line going through the whole new building, creating a flowing space and a visual connection between the south and the north of the site, supplementing the view contact between the new building and the central plaza in the east-west orientation.