Basement Plan:

Housing the county courtroom, circuit court, clerk offices and profile vaults. The below-grade entrance leads to a small garden with a staged water pool connecting the street level by flowing water. When sitting in the garden people's lines of sight are limited, only being able to see the top of existing county hall and war memorial monument. The visual contact enhances the historic context continuation.