Terms and Conditions

Terms and Conditions:

©The American Physiological Society (APS). All rights reserved. The publisher for this requested copyrighted material is APS. By clicking “accept” in connection with completing this license transaction, you agree to the following terms and conditions that apply to this transaction. At the time you opened your Rightslink account you had agreed to the billing and payment terms and conditions established by Copyright Clearance Center (CCC) available at <http://myaccount.copyright.com>

The APS hereby grants to you a nonexclusive limited license to reuse published material as requested by you, provided you have disclosed complete and accurate details of your proposed reuse of articles, figures, tables, images, and /or data in new or derivative works. Licenses are for a one-time English language use with a maximum distribution equal to the number of copies identified by you in the licensing process, unless additional options for translations or World Rights were included in your request. Any form of print or electronic republication must be completed within three years from the date hereof. Copies prepared before then may be distributed thereafter

The following conditions are required for a License of Reuse:

Attribution: You must publish in your new or derivative work a citation to the original source of the material(s) being licensed herein, including publication name, author(s), volume, year, and page number prominently displayed in the article or within the figure/image legend.

Abstracts: APS Journal article abstracts may be reproduced or translated for noncommercial purposes without requesting permission, provided the citation to the original source of the materials is included as noted above (“Attribution”). Abstracts or portions of abstracts may not be used in advertisements or commercial promotions.

Non-profit/noncommercial reuse: APS grants permission for the free reuse of APS published material in new works published for educational purposes, provided there is no charge or fee for the new work and/or the work is not directly or indirectly commercially supported or sponsored. Neither original authors nor non-authors may reuse published material in new works that are commercially supported or sponsored including reuse in a work produced by a commercial publisher without seeking permission.

Video and photographs: Some material published in APS publications may belong to other copyright holders and cannot be republished without their permission. The copyright holder of photographs must be ascertained from the original source by the permission requestor. Videos and podcasts may not be rebroadcast without proper attribution and permission as requested here. For further inquiries on reuse of these types of materials, please contact cvillemez@the-aps.org

Figures/Tables/Images are available to the requestor from the APS journals website at <http://www.the-aps.org/publications/journals/>. The obtaining of content is a separate transaction and does not involve Rightslink or CCC, and is the responsibility of the permission seeker. Higher resolution images are available at additional charge from APS; please contact cvillemez@the-aps.org

Original Authors of Published Works: To see a full list of original authors rights concerning their own published work <http://www.the-aps.org/publications/authorinfo/copyright.htm>

Content reuse rights awarded by the APS may be exercised immediately upon issuance of this license, provided full disclosure and complete and accurate details of the proposed reuse have been made; no license is finally granted unless and until full payment is received either by the publisher or by CCC as provided in CCC's Billing and Payment Terms and Conditions. If full payment is not received on a timely basis, then any license preliminarily granted shall be deemed automatically revoked and shall be void as if never granted. Further, in the event that you breach any of these Terms and Conditions or any of CCC's Billing and Payment Terms and Conditions, the license is automatically revoked and shall be void as if never granted. Use of materials as described in a revoked license, as well as any use of the materials beyond the scope of the license, may constitute copyright infringement and the Publisher reserves the right to take action to protect its copyright of its materials.

The APS makes no representations or warranties with respect to the licensed material. You hereby indemnify and agree to hold harmless the publisher and CCC, and their respective officers, directors, employees and agents, from and against any and all claims arising out of your use of the licensed material other than as specifically authorized pursuant to this license.

This license is personal to you /your organization and may not be sublicensed, assigned, or transferred by you /your organization to another person /organization without the publisher's permission. This license may not be amended except in writing signed by both parties, or in the case of the publisher, by CCC on the publisher's behalf.

The APS reserves all rights not specifically granted in the combination of (i) the license details provided by you and accepted in the course of this licensing transaction, (ii) these Terms and Conditions and (iii) CCC's Billing and Payment Terms and Conditions.

Dear Abinash Padhi,

We hereby grant permission for the requested use expected that due credit is given to the original source.

If material appears within our work with credit to another source, authorisation from that source must be obtained.

Credit must include the following components:

- Journals: Author(s) Name(s): Title of the Article. Name of the Journal. Publication year. Volume. Page(s).
Copyright Wiley-VCH GmbH. Reproduced with permission.

If you also wish to publish your thesis in electronic format, you may use the article according to the Copyright transfer agreement:

3. Final Published Version.

Wiley-VCH hereby licenses back to the Contributor the following rights with respect to the final published version of the Contribution:

a. [...]

b. Re-use in other publications. The right to re-use the final Contribution or parts thereof for any publication authored or edited by the Contributor (excluding journal articles) where such re-used material constitutes less than half of the total material in such publication. In such case, any modifications should be accurately noted.

Kind regards

Dear Abinash Padhi,

It appears you are requesting permission to reuse Springer Nature published content. Most of our permissions may be easily and automatically granted via our CCC RightsLink system. However, I can see that this particular Open Access Article is licensed under the terms of the Creative Commons CC BY license.

The Creative Commons CC BY license permits unrestricted use, distribution, and reproduction in any medium, provided the original published article is properly cited according to current citation standards. Material from: 'AUTHOR(S), TITLE, JOURNAL TITLE, published [YEAR], [publisher - as it appears on our copyright page], provide a link to the Creative Commons license, and indicate if changes are made.

Images or other third party material in the article are included in the article's Creative Commons license, unless indicated otherwise in a credit line to the material.

If this material is not included in the article's Creative Commons license and your intended use is not permitted by statutory regulation or exceeds the permitted use, please provide details so that our Journal Permissions team may provide further guidance.

[External - Use Caution]

Hi,

My name is Abinash Padhi and I am the first author of the publication " Force-exerting perpendicular lateral protrusions in fibroblastic cell contraction". I was wondering if I can receive permission to use the article in its entirety in my thesis. Please let me know.

Thanks,
Abinash
