Hello,

I wanted to check if I had permission to include the following article (text, tables, figures, etc) in my thesis, to be published through Virginia Tech. If I do not have permissions, please let me know how to obtain them.

Pack, E., Dubik, J., Snyder, W., Simon, A., Clark, S., & De Vita, R. (2020). Biaxial Stress Relaxation of Vaginal Tissue in Pubertal Gilts. Journal of Biomechanical Engineering, 142(3), 031002. <https://doi.org/10.1115/1.4045707>

Dear Ms. Pack,

It is our pleasure to grant you permission to use all or any part of the ASME paper “Biaxial Stress Relaxation of Vaginal Tissue in Pubertal Gilts,” by Erica Pack , Justin Dubik , William Snyder , Alexander Simon , Sherrie Clark , Raffaella De Vita, J Biomech Eng. Mar 2020, 142(3), cited in your letter for inclusion in a thesis to be published by Virginia Tech.

Permission is granted for the specific use as stated herein and does not permit further use of the materials without proper authorization. Proper attribution must be made to the author(s) of the materials. Please note: if any or all of the figures and/or Tables are of another source, permission should be granted from that outside source or include the reference of the original source. ASME does not grant permission for outside source material that may be referenced in the ASME works.

As is customary, we request that you ensure full acknowledgment of this material, the author(s), source and ASME as original publisher.

Many thanks for your interest in ASME publications.

Sincerely,

Beth Darchi

Dear Dr. Erica Pack,

Thank you for your query.

Please note that, as one of the authors of this article, you retain the right to reuse it in your thesis/dissertation. You do not require formal permission to do so. You are permitted to post this Elsevier article online if it is embedded within your thesis. You are also permitted to post your Author Accepted Manuscript online.

However posting of the final published article is prohibited.

“As per our Sharing Policy, authors are permitted to post the Accepted version of their article on their institutional repository – as long as it is for internal institutional use only.

It can only be shared publicly on that site once the journal-specific embargo period has lapsed. For a list of embargo periods please see: Embargo List.

You are not permitted to post the Published Journal Article (PJA) on the repository.”

Please feel free to contact me if you have any queries.
