My dream would be that Littleton, CO would never happen again. It would be about respecting and about accepting people and honoring differences.

What we love about the Reggio Emilia Approach:

Time to look at things more deeply.

Emphasis on quality not quantity and process not product.

Engages the individual.

It's Human and respectful of kids.

It's Student-Directed.

It's about building Relationships within a Community.

It's developmental: A need to belong, a need to connect socially, a need to be Successful.

Project-Based Learning.

Teacher - Collaboration.

Interpretation of knowledge.
